Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

It's no longer necessary to go into the details describing the practical merits of the Ford car—everybody knows all about "The Universal Car." How it goes and comes day after day and year after year at an operating expense so small that it's wonderful. This advertisement is to urge prospective buyers to place orders without delay as the war has produced conditions which may interfere with normal production. Buy a Ford car when you can get one. We'll take good care of your order—get your Ford to you soon as possible—and give the best in "after service" when required.

MORE THANKFUL LETTERS

Received By Red Cross From Army and Navy Boys.

Another bunch of letters of appreciation for the generous Christmas boxes sent out by the Madison County Red Cross Chapter have been received from sons of old Madison who are in the army and navy. The Daily Register wants to print every letter possible from the boys who are in the service of their country, and is glad to have the opportunity of publishing these, which are as follows:

December 26, 1917.

Red Cross,

Richmond, Ky.

It is with great pleasure that I am able to thank the Richmond Red Cross for their Xmas box. The selection of articles was such that they fill a soldier's or sailor's kit with things most needed. It was with a great deal of pride that on being discovered with a knife I could tell my mess mates that it was a present from the Richmond Red Cross.

Yours truly,

Marshall Collins.

Junctio City, Kansas.

Kindly accept my thanks even at this late period for the excellent little holiday box, containing just what a soldier needs. The kind remembrance of such good people as compose the Madison County Red Cross, will certainly inspire us fighting men to do our utmost in this great struggle.

G. Philip Bush.

January 1, 1918.

Camp Johnson, Jacksonville.

January 1, 1918.

Madison County Red Cross, Richmond, Ky.

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the lovely Christmas remembrance which was ineffably appreciated. It is indeed a consoling thing to know that you are not entirely forgotten by the dear folks at home.

I shall often be minded of your kindness and thoughtfulness and I only hope that I shall be worthy of such kindness and thoughtfulness by giving my very best service to my country, which I am so proud to be able to serve in this terrible crisis. I wish you all a very happy and prosperous new year.

Lieut. Benj. Cassidy.

Boston, Mass.,

Jan. 6, 1918.

Madison County Red Cross, Richmond, Ky.

My Dear Friends—

I received my Christmas box here and I think it just fine. It certainly was nice of you to think of me at this time and I will do my best in the present war to show my appreciation of your kind remembrances of me.

Yours sincerely,
John E. Powell.

January 3, 1918.

Richmond Red Cross, Richmond, Ky.

Dear Friends:—

Thanksgiving I received from the Red Cross at Richmond a package of just such things that pleases a soldier. Please accept my thanks for this package.

Were it not for the fact that we soldier boys know that our friends at home are with us and are doing everything for us that is possible, our work would be hard, but with our friends with us our task is made much easier. Again thanking you for your remembrance, I am,

Yours sincerely,
J. I. Griggs,

4th Reg. Inf. Camp Taylor.

Are Your Sewers Clogged?

The bowels are the sewerage system of the body. You can well imagine the result when they are stopped up as is the case in constipation. As a purgative you will find Chamberlain's Tablets excellent. They are mild and gentle in action. They also improve the digestion.

NOTICE.
